Mediation Style

Dr. Shin believes that a holistic and collaborating relationship is a key to the successful mediation. Based on her in-depth knowledge about engineering, technology, finance, and business deals, she can understand the true values and interests of each party and find creative solutions to the dispute.

Mediation Experience

Dr. Shin has advised and served as counsel to the multi-national parties or as an arbitrator in over 80 international transactions and disputes. During her career in the field of dispute resolution, she has also negotiated and settled several large-scale international disputes during and after the formal legal proceedings.
