Mediation Style

What I think the most important is to listen carefully and to try to understand the parties' interests and goals. Take facilitative approach but also use evaluative approach when appropriate. Use both joint sessions and private sessions in order to find solutions for the parties.

Mediation Experience

As a mediator, Chieko has extensively worked on variety of complex commercial, civil and family cases that require coordination of multi-stakeholders' interests. Chieko has acted as a mediator in Tokyo Bar Association since 2010 and had served as an adjunct judge/ chief mediator at the Tokyo Family Court for 4 years.

As a counsel, she provides advice to both Japanese and international companies on cross-border dispute resolutions, insolvency matters, nuclear energy matters, commercial transactions and employment law issues.
