

Mr Lee Wai Pong is the Executive Director of the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration (SCMA) and regularly presents its brand of arbitration to audiences both in Singapore and Asia. His commentaries on the development and promotion of maritime arbitration have been published in international publications such as Seatrade, Tradewinds and Asian International Arbitration Journal.

He is a qualified Master Mariner, a retired Commanding Officer (Reservist) from the Republic of Singapore Navy, an accredited Associate Mediator with the Singapore Mediation Centre and a Fellow of:

- Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb)
- Singapore Institute of Arbitrators (SI Arb)
- Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers (ICS)
- Institute of Marine Engineering, Science and Technology (IMarEST)

Wai Pong sailed on a wide range of ships during his sea faring career. Prior to joining SCMA, he worked for a prominent international ship owner based in Singapore and headed up the commercial management of their handy sized fleet of dry bulk carriers.

His involvement and experience in shipping spans 40 years covering both commercial and technical management and he maintains an extensive network of contacts in the maritime arbitration and shipping circles in addition to being in regular contact with regulators. He also served as past chairman of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers (Singapore Branch), has taught shipbroking and chartering to thousands of students registered with the Singapore Shipping Association and is an adjunct lecturer for following programs:

- Singapore Maritime Academy's BBA (Maritime Transport Management)
- BI Executive MBA
- NTU/BI MSc Degree Course in Shipping
- Newcastle University Marine degree

Wai Pong also volunteers as the current chairman of the Missions to Seafarers Singapore Branch, a local charity.
